2. Bidding begins at 50% of the stated buy price, an amount already lower than usual. Unlike mail-bid sales, bids are not reduced. Please bid only the amount you are willing to pay. Lots sold via bidding will be awarded on the date indicated. Please bid in whole dollars.
3. Unless exempt by law, sales tax will be added to the cost of all lots delivered in the State of Ohio.
4. This is not an approval sale. Any claims for adjustment must be made within three days after receipt of lots purchased. No lots may be returned without our written permission. By submitting bids you agree to the “Buy or Bid” Terms of Sale herewith set forth.
5. Bidders unknown to us must supply acceptable credit references or a 25% deposit to assure entry of their bids.
6. A 15% buyer’s premium will be added to the cost of all lots, whether sold by “Bid” or “Buy.” There is no additional charge or commission for executing bids. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale.
7. All postage, insurance and shipping costs will be added to your invoice, except as noted below.
8. Payment must be made in U.S. dollars, and may be made by check, money order, credit card, or by PayPal to df@numislit.com. All checks must be drawn on United States banks. Payments may also be made directly to our bank: details will be provided upon request. All bank charges must be paid by the sender.
9. Lots to be mailed to addresses not in the United States or its Territories will be sent only at the risk of the purchaser. When possible, insurance or registration will be obtained.
10. Title to all lots remains with the cataloguer until paid for in full. Payment must be made immediately upon notification or upon receipt of material. The discretionary right to withhold delivery of lots until full payment has been received is reserved.

The Bank Leu sale of the Hans von Aulock library is perhaps one of the most exciting auctions of numismatic literature on ancient coins ever held. Its comprehensive nature and general state of preservation (most volumes were bound in full leather and, though not particularly well executed, were neat and clean), combined with strong competition from Italian and other major European bidders pitted against the Getty Institute, often resulted in record prices.

Infrequently offered. Meloche had assembled a sizable collection including many rarities, but it had to be sold in a series of bankruptcy sales by a firm that wasn't really up to the task. Only the first sale is illustrated and, while it does include an excellent collection of Canadian paper money, not a single coin, token or medal is illustrated in these catalogues though they contain lots of material worth illustrating.

The Numismatic Circular published substantive articles since its beginning, featuring many important works primarily on ancient and British coins, but also in other areas (Forrer's Biographical History of Medallists was originally published in its pages). This cumulative index is a godsend, with 14,000 entries bringing together in one place the enormous amount of numismatic information that was published in the Circular during its first century.

An interesting letter, written in response to a query by Farquhar on points made by Hill in his Numismatic Chronicle article "The Technique of Simon van de Passe" (1915). Farquhar had written Hill regarding "corroborative evidence afforded by some of the incuse counters of the same period, representing James and Prince Charles..." In the letter, Hill suggests that "I think that what we must do is to have a second portion to my paper consisting of a note on the counters, signed by you." This led to Farquhar's "Silver Counters of the Seventeenth Century," published in the NC for 1916 (and from which her quote above is taken), and "Additional Notes on Silver Counters of the Seventeenth Century" (NC, 1925). This letter was tipped into a bound volume containing offprints of all three of these works in the library of the Birmingham Assay Office, but the volume was badly waterstained and mildewed and could not be salvaged—this letter, however, escaped unscathed and has been preserved.

Possibly the finest ANA convention sale. Conducted jointly by four different firms, the New Netherlands material tends to receive the most attention, including as it does the Homer K. Downing large cents and selections from his library. John J. Ford, Jr. claimed to have done much editing of the other three firms' material, in addition to his work on the New Netherlands section. Cataloguing the Downing large cents was the first job Walter Breen did for New Netherlands. Other material includes the Gibbs Canadian, Rumbel's patterns and Leshner dollars, Wayne Raymond's assay medals, and coins of the world. A classic sale (rated A+ overall by Adams). Adams 38 (under New Netherlands) and 10 (under Schulman). Davis 779.

Ford, Jr., in characteristically meticulous, inimitable style. A copy of the catalogue belongs in the library of anyone seriously interested in American numismatics.

635 Orden der Eisernen Krone. STATUTEN FÜR DEN ÖSTERREICHISCH-KAISERLICHEN ORDEN DER EISERNEN KRONE. Vienna, 1884. Folio [40.5 by 28.5], original blue cloth, paneled in blind and with upper cover lettered in gilt. 16, (28) pages; 7 finely engraved plates depicting decorations, ribbons, clasps, swords, devices, and full dress ensembles; tissue guards. Front hinge cracking; minor scuffs and wear to board edges, else near fine. $70
A very scarce and visually impressive work on the Order of the Iron Crown, among the highest orders of Austria and Austria-Hungary. Suetens originally (1969) ascribed this publication to Carlo Baron Macséry di Tsóor (entry 323), whose signature is appended to the fourth (1884) supplement to the Statutes, though he chose simply to list it under "Statuts" in his 1977 edition (entry S.362). Mulder & Purves follow the later example, but do not record an 1884 edition, listing only a c. 1850 printing and one from 1908 (2581-1 and -2).

Though little noticed by American colonial coin collectors and dealers at the time, the sale certainly caught the attention of some. Lots 125-127 were comprised of Voci Populi halfpennies and the latter two lots each included a farthing. Described as "GEF [good extremely fine] with virtually full lustre," lot 125 brought £4600 [approximately $8,600] on a £40-60 estimate! Lots 126 and 127, in lesser condition, brought £3600 and £1400 respectively.

F.C.C. Boyd only conducted three auctions of his own (though he managed Lyman Low's final sale, which took place shortly after Low's death, and likely had a hand in others). This first was a mail-bid sale, and is very scarce: this is the first copy we have offered since Kolbe Sale 110.

The second publication derived from the short-lived Metropolitan Coin Co., founded by C. Lynn Glaser and Paul Weinstein. According to Ken Lowe ("American Numismatic Periodicals from 1860 to 1960: An Overview Based on Remy Bourne's Book of the Same Name"), "The second issue, dated November 1961, was renamed The Numismatic Journal as [Lynn] Glaser took over the journal and withdrew from the Metropolitan Coin Company which had moved to New York City where it was operated by Paul Weinstein." It is substantially more rare than the first issue.

Adams 51. Adams A–: "3 RRR gold patterns. Gold proof sets. Proof 1840 $1. MS chain 1¢ (3). Discovery S-53. XF 1799 1¢. MS 1823 1¢. Proof 1820 1¢." The M.A. Brown sale was to be the first Chapman catalogue issued with actual photographic prints as plates (all of the earlier Chapman sale plates had been produced by various photographic printing processes). John J. Ford, Jr., in the August, 1950 issue of The Numismatist, provides background: "Shortly before the turn of the century, the Chapmans ran into some trouble with the Federal Government concerning the extremely high quality of their photographic plates. After quite a little political intervention, Henry Chapman became the father of legislation permitting authorized dealers to fully illustrate their wares. S.H. Chapman had a great interest in photography and personally composed and photographed the plates for many of the large sale catalogs." In the interim, however, government regulations restricting the visual reproduction of coins prevailed and the controversy unfortunately, resulted in the firm issuing no illustrated catalogues for nearly a decade until the 1904 Mills sale. According to Jack Collins, the M.A. Brown sale photographic glass negatives were seized by the government, but not before two sets of proof prints had been made. One set was cut in half by the Chapmans to fit into their bidbook of the sale. The other set was acquired privately by Collins, and was subsequently sold privately. The sale itself is important for a very fine collection of choice large cents, eighty-four obverses and reverses of which are depicted on the four plates. This post-sale edition, with the printed prices realized list bound in at the end, is rarely encountered.

Adams 34–40. A good group, with two sales (34 and 37) that receive an A+ overall rating by Adams: the February 1884 Isaac F. Wood sale and the October 1884 sale of Frossard's own collection. The Wood sale is an important—and enormous—sale, of especial importance to medal collectors. The Washington medals alone take up more than 500 lots. In addition, the sale features a fine selection of numismatic literature. Adams 169–171 and 173–174. Ed Frossard, Jr. was active in the hobby, becoming Secretary of the ANA. Unfortunately, he was not the businessman his father was, and he quietly departed NYC for parts unknown in late 1901.

1054 Fuller, Perry W. CATALOG. UNITED STATES COINS, STAMPS AND MISCELLANEOUS JEWELRY, COLLECTION OF THE LATE JUDGE WALTER I. DAWKINS, TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION BY ORDER OF THE ORPHANS COURT OF BALTIMORE, MARYLAND. Baltimore, May 22, 1936. 8vo, original printed gray card covers. 13, (3) pages; 213 lots. Small stain in upper corner; very good. $50
The first we recall ever handling. Perry W. Fuller, to the extent that his auction cataloguing is recollected at all, is remembered today for his May 2, 1935 catalogue of the gold coins unearthed by Theodore Jones and Henry Grob—the so-called "Baltimore Hoard" (above). While Fuller's catalogue did little to add to the excitement of the hoard's disposition, it remains popular today because it has a good story. The present catalogue resembles the 1935 hoard sale, but is in fact a completely different offering. How the Orphans Court of Baltimore found itself responsible for selling a judge's coin collection is unknown to us, but the job fell once again to Our Man Fuller. One would like to think that his cataloguing skills had improved in the year since the Baltimore Hoard sale. One really would. Alas, all we can say is that Fuller's 1936 catalogue makes his 1935 one seem common.

Rarely offered. The Bullet sales were intended to sell only certified coins, at a time when most coins were still offered raw. The unillustrated catalogues received limited distribution, and could be customizable, with clients receiving only those pages relevant to their interests. Retention rates were low. Gengerke's coverage of these Heritage catalogues is minimal: six of the sales here present (10/13/1990, 3/2/1991, 3/28/1991, 12/3/1993, 2/24/1995 and 3/1/1995) are not listed by him at all; his listing for 1/6/1993 should be corrected to 1/5/1993. We note also that the first Bullet sale he lists (6/15/1990) is stated within to be the fourth such sale.

1147 Hildreth, R. BANKS, BANKING, AND PAPER CURRENCIES; IN THREE PARTS. I. HISTORY OF BANKING AND PAPER MONEY. II. ARGUMENT FOR OPEN COMPETITION IN BANKING. III. APOLOGY FOR ONE-DOLLAR NOTES. Boston: Whipple & Damrell, 1840. 12mo, contemporary brown cloth. 209, (1) pages. Spine broken; ex library stamps; good. $40

Rare and important. Richard Hildreth, best-remembered today for his multi-volume History of the United States, here advocates the "system of open competition in banking," and the issue of $1.00 notes. In the third part of the work, entitled "An Apology for One-Dollar Notes," the author lauds the "convenience afforded by the use of small notes" over gold ("that most expensive of circulating mediums") and silver ("A silver dollar is a cumbrous coin, and ten silver dollars in bulk and weight are more than any one desires to carry about him"). An important view that contrasted with that of many, including William Gouge. Ex Dan Freidus Library.

1148 Hilt, Robert P., II. DIE VARIETIES OF EARLY UNITED STATES COINS. VOLUME NUMBER 1: SILVER AND GOLD COINS 1794 TO 1798, DIES 1794 THROUGH 1797. Omaha, 1980. 4to, original maroon cloth, gilt. (10), 122, (6) pages; enlarged coin illustrations. Fine. $30

While some of the statistical conclusions are controversial, this work is a major contribution to our knowledge and understanding of the earliest of United States coins.

An issue from the scarce first volume of this important publication. The Historical Magazine was an early source of numismatic information, and is mentioned in the "Introductory" of the first issue of the American Journal of Numismatics as being one of the primary American sources for information on coins. Attinelli 109.

1151 THE HISTORICAL MAGAZINE, AND NOTES AND QUERIES CONCERNING THE ANTIQUITIES, HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY OF AMERICA. Volume 3 (New York: C. Benjamin Richardson, 1859). Edited by John Gilmary Shea. 8vo, contemporary brown half calf with mottled sides; spine with five raised bands, ruled and lettered in gilt. iv, 384, xxxii pages, including index [one signature transposed]. Binding worn but holding, with joints cracked and spine deteriorating [lower couple of inches missing]. Binding good, pages better. $50

Important for the inclusion of a three-page version of Charles I. Bushnell's "An Historical Account of the First Three Business Tokens Issued in the City of New York" illustrated with cuts of the Motts token and two Talbot, Allum and Lee tokens. Also includes an article on the die varieties of 1793 cents, one of the earliest on the subject, and other numismatic content. Attinelli 109. Ex Charles G. Loring, Jr. Later ex the Public Library of the Town of Beverly, with labels on pastedown.

1152 THE HISTORICAL MAGAZINE, AND NOTES AND QUERIES CONCERNING THE ANTIQUITIES, HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY OF AMERICA. Volume VIII (New York: John Gilmary Shea, 1864). 8vo, contemporary brown half calf with mottled sides; spine with five raised bands, ruled and lettered in gilt. 408 pages; folding plate; 2 additional facsimile plates. Binding worn and rubbed; ex-library copy with usual signs; very good or so. $40

Includes a report on the prices realized at Woodward's fifth semiannual sale

(Levick et al.), and information on the activities of the Boston, Philadelphia, Rhode Island and American Numismatic Societies. A brief note on the reversion to the barter system in parts of the South during the Civil War (still ongoing at the time) is also given. According to David S. Edelstien (Joel Munsell, p. 190), The Historical Magazine was printed by Munsell of Albany from July 1864 to May 1865.

1153 THE HISTORICAL MAGAZINE, AND NOTES AND QUERIES CONCERNING THE ANTIQUITIES, HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY OF AMERICA. Volume IX (New York: John Gilmary Shea, 1865). 8vo, contemporary brown half calf with mottled sides; spine with five raised bands, ruled and lettered in gilt. (iv), (9)–382 pages; 4 engraved plates illustrating various historians. Binding worn and rubbed; ex-library copy with usual signs; good to very good. $40

Includes reports on the activities of the Boston, Philadelphia and American Numismatic Societies, and other brief discussions of numismatic interest. The first issue includes an amusing commentary in which the editor bemoans the bibliomania raging at the time for special editions of historical publications (all the more amusing as the editor uses Munsell's Historical Series as an example, despite Munsell being the printer of The Historical Magazine at this time). This volume printed by Munsell through the May issue.

1154 THE HISTORICAL MAGAZINE, AND NOTES AND QUERIES, CONCERNING THE ANTIQUITIES, HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY OF AMERICA. Second Series, Vol. VI (July through December 1869). 8vo, original black calf and boards, gilt; spine with five raised bands. (6), 380 pages. Spine worn; front cover nearly detached; very good. $40

This volume includes a query in the August issue by E.F. Rockwell regarding a Philip IV Spanish gold half doubloon found in North Carolina and its attribution by Frederic Eckfeldt, assayer of the Charlotte Mint. Also appearing in this volume is a discussion of the use of dates on coins, arising out of a mistaken attribution of a coin's Latin motto. The September issue focuses on the Salem Witch Trials, which, while obviously not of numismatic import, is of special interest. Numismatist Joel Munsell is credited as a contributor to the volume. Attinelli, page 109.

1155 Hilt II, Robert P. DIE VARIETIES OF EARLY UNITED STATES COINS. VOLUME NUMBER 1: SILVER AND GOLD COINS 1794 TO 1798, DIES 1794 THROUGH 1797. Omaha, 1980. 4to, original maroon cloth, gilt. Depicted are dozens of workers inspecting sheets of paper money in a very large Treasury Department room. The printing of the bills is done from plates on hand presses. Each pressman is given one package of note paper, enough to make 4,000 bills. With the aid of one woman helper, he prints 2,000 bills a day, on one side only. At the end of the day all stock is carefully checked before the workmen can leave. This is to prevent stealing. Possibly the finest ANA convention sale. Conducted jointly by four different firms, the New Netherlands material tends to receive the most attention, including as it does the Homer K. Downing large cents and selections from his library. John J. Ford, Jr. claimed to have done much editing of the other three firms' material, in addition to his work on the New Netherlands section. Cataloguing the Downing large cents was the first job Walter Breen did for New Netherlands.

Other material includes the Gibbs Canadian, Rumbel's patterns and Leshner dollars, Wayte Raymond's assay medals, and coins of the world. A classic sale (rated A+ overall by Adams). Adams 38 (under New Netherlands) and 10 (under Schulman). Davis 779.

Lots 15–163 comprised an excellent selection of rare and desirable American numismatic literature, superbly catalogued at the zenith of his career by John J. Ford, Jr., in characteristically meticulous, inimitable style. A copy of the catalogue belongs in the library of anyone seriously interested in American numismatics.

1353 Newcomb, Howard R. UNITED STATES COPPER CENTS, 1816–1857. First edition. New York: Numismatic Review, 1944. 4to, original russet cloth, gilt. 284 pages; 11 plates. Very heavily annotated throughout, including on endpapers [see comments]. Additional pages of notes laid or taped in. Backstrip missing; front board detached; heavy tape repairs. Good. $100

A remarkable copy of this long-standard work, very heavily annotated by the important large cent collector Admiral Worthington Smith Bitler. The annotations begin on the volume's endpapers, which have been transformed into die variety charts for middle and later dates in the front and for early date large cents on the back. Each date is assigned a row and each variety a column, with varieties in Bitler's collection (nearly all of them) circled. The text itself is heavily annotated in a magenta ink not unlike Walter Breen's, recording unlisted varieties, die diagnostics, corrections, subvarieties, rarity ratings, notes on die states and other esoterica. Additional sheets are laid or taped into the volume, including printed photos of 1822 N-13 and 1835 N-18 from New Netherlands catalogues, providing updated information on listed varieties (mostly die diagnostic charts) or descriptions of new ones. A carbon copy of a letter from Walter Breen to Bitler (undated, but early 1950), listing unpublished varieties, sliced into three slips, is laid in, with various other pieces of the letter tipped in where appropriate. Another Breen letter, dated January 28, 1959 and addressed "Dear Worthy," is also included (also a carbon). The Breen letters are, as always, both informative and entertaining to read ("For 1851 Newcomb lists some 34 varieties; I found a die account for that year in the Nat'l Archives indicating that 43 obvs. and 47 revs. were made of the 1¢ denomination. It is therefore vulgarly obvious that Newcomb's enumeration for that year—and presumably others—was grossly incomplete, even if we forget about mulings for the moment." ... "After 1839 there are over 100 new or not-in-Newcomb varieties, both proofs and regular issues... They are for the most part described in New Netherlands catalogues..." ... "Every time I visit NN there is much quarreling and I forget about the S-122. But one day this coming week I won't forget it and you'll get it"). All in all, a fascinating copy of this important work.

1354 Newcomb, Howard R. UNITED STATES COPPER CENTS 1816–1857. Lawrence: Quarterman, 1981 reprint. 4to, original brown cloth lettered in white. vii, (1), 5–284 pages; text illustrations; 11 plates. Fine. $30

Rare. The name, unfortunately, is a coincidence, and the sale bears no relation to Edward T. Newell, who at the time of this auction was the foremost American authority on ancient coins. Indeed, the company remains in business today. This was apparently their only numismatic auction.

1388 Pennypacker Auction Centre. AN EXTRAORDINARY AUCTION OF COINS AND STAMPS, ALSO ENCASED POSTAGE, TOKENS AND INDIAN RELICS, FROM THE PRIVATE COLLECTION OF IRA S. REED, DECEASED. Reading, May 16, 1955. 8vo, self-covered, as issued. 16 pages; no lots numbers: fine collection of stamps; (48) lots of encased postage; 9 pages listing U.S. federal coins; 3 pages listing Indian artifacts, books and furniture. Very good. $50

An unlisted Pennypacker catalogue, not included in any numismatic bibliography of which we are aware. While most of the material is poorly described, the collection of encased postage is noteworthy, as is the provenance. Ira Reed was a Glenside, Pennsylvania coin dealer who issued a number of auction catalogues and other publications, including the 1941 ANA sale. He died in October of 1954. The fact that this sale apparently had been completely forgotten is really quite remarkable. Indeed, it is a month earlier than the earliest Pennypacker sale included by Gengerke.

A rarely seen fixed-price catalogue that uses the same vibrantly printed chromolithographic plate of orders and decorations originally prepared to accompany the firm's March 13, 1882 auction sale of the John W. Stained and worn at bottom margin. Good to very good. $80
Elmer Sears, while perhaps a second-tier early 20th-century American coin dealer, early on was a major promoter of fractional California gold coins. The 1904 auction catalogue featured here (his first sale and only the third example we have encountered in a number of years), confirms his interest in the field at the beginning of his numismatic career. Featured in the catalogue were 28 quarter, 25 half, and 9 California gold dollars. The second sale is Adams 4 in the "Miscellaneous" chapter of his United States Numismatic Literature, Volume II, rated B+: 1864, 1887, 1907 proof gold sets. Near complete $1 gold. Gem 1806 25¢, 1800 5¢. VF 1799/98 1¢. MS 1807 (Comet) 1¢. Proof cents, half cents. George Tilden's fine fractional currency." An important sale, with commentary, particularly in the large cent section of the William Carr collection. George L. Tilden's collection of fractional currency was deemed "almost without exception in the best possible condition ... and the majority of specimens are in duplicate." The third sale is also quite rare.

He is best known for this important fixed price list, issued around 1915, offering 170 different varieties of California gold quarter dollars, half dollars, and dollars.

Sales marked with an asterisk include the prices realized list. Varying softcover formats. Generally near fine. $80
Rarely seen catalogues. Gengerke lists 20 stand-alone auction catalogues for Seitz (ignoring one auction conducted via an ad in the Scrapbook), of which all but two are here present. According to Pete Smith, Seitz was Tom Elder's son-in-law, and acquired Elder's stock after his death. He had a strong interest in paper money, probably deriving from the fact that he was a signer of National Bank Notes.

1482 Sellers, George Escol. EARLY ENGINEERING REMINISCENCES (1815–40) OF GEORGE ESCOL SELLERS. Washington, D.C.: Smithsonian Institution, Museum of History and Technology, 1965. Edited by Eugene S. Ferguson. 4to, original gray cloth, lettered in black. xix, (1), 202, (2) pages; portrait of Sellers; numerous text illustrations; endpaper maps. Near fine. $50
An important source of information on the early 19th-century workings of the Philadelphia Mint. Born in Philadelphia in 1808, Sellers as a young boy roamed the mechanical shops of the city keenly observing their activities. Possessed of an uncommonly good memory, he began recording his reminiscences at age 75 in various issues of the American Machinist. An entire chapter in this fascinating volume is devoted to his observations of Mint operations and another is devoted to the activities of Jacob Perkins.

Almost certainly the first edition. The Supplement is scarce. An interesting publication, including "An exhibit of prices paid for U. S. coins at Auction Sales, 1903-05." Shinkle was not a coin dealer and appears to have been impartial. Also featured was a "List of U.S. Pattern Cents," a "List of Rare U.S. Coins" and a "List of Private Gold Issues," among other Shinkle compilations. The work concludes with a "List of Coin Dealers," thirteen of them, ranging in locale from Boston to San Francisco.

A very well-preserved copy of this scarce and important catalogue, in its original binding. Adams A+: "One of the great collections: balanced strength in ancients, European and U.S. rarities and high condition." Grierson 275. Fourth sale: The catalogue was Chapman's first major solo production after the breakup of the partnership with Samuel Hudson Chapman the preceding year. Henry notes in the preface: "To prepare this catalogue has been a labor of love, as I am greatly interested in our pursuit and expect to devote my life to it." True to his word, Henry Chapman conducted nearly fifty sales over the following quarter century, including famous collections such as Jenks, Earle, Zabriskie, Parsons, Bement and Jackman, among others. Many would argue, however, that he never sold a finer collection of American coins. Adams A+: "Famous early collection, perhaps the best. Replete with history and great rarities in all U.S. series." Clain-Stefanelli 12078 and 12430.

1626 Veeder, Nicholas. COMETALLISM: A PLAN FOR COMBINING GOLD AND SILVER IN COINAGE, FOR UNITING AND BLENDING THEIR VALUES IN PAPER MONEY, AND FOR ESTABLISHING A COMPOSITE SINGLE STANDARD DOLLAR OF ACCOUNT. Pittsburgh: Published by the Author, 1885. Small 8vo, original printed paper covers. 68 pages; bold chromolithographic frontispiece plate depicting both sides of six "cometallic" coin designs printed in silver and gold ink on a glossy royal purple background; text illustrations. Front cover missing; inscribed on front flyleaf; good. $80

A rare and little-known work promoting the adoption by the United States of what we would now call a bimetallic coinage, consisting of gold centers within a predominantly silver planchet. Perhaps its most arresting feature is the striking color frontispiece plate, a bold and highly appealing chromolithograph that is impressive now and must have been exceptional in its day (and quite expensive to produce). The plate illustrates Veeder's designs for 25¢, 50¢, and $1.00 coins, retaining in their centers the basic coin designs of the day. The work sets forth a novel and most interesting plan envisioned by Veeder to resolve the great controversy over silver and gold: "The new coin which I have invented, and the adoption of which I propose, consists of an outer disk of silver of the value of 50c., resembling a coin with a hole cut through its centre. In this hole or centre is fitted a disk of gold, also of the value of 50c. The gold is held in place by the millings of the silver lapping over the gold and the compression incident to coinage... It may also be said for this coin, that the abrasion comes on the cheaper metal, the gold being protected by being in a recess. In size it would be only a trifle thicker than the present half dollar... The union of the two colors in one coin will also give it an attractive appearance and gratify an artistic taste."

A very scarce and important work; also the oldest bank history listed in Sullivan's bibliography of the subject. The Suffolk bank was instrumental in curbing many of the excesses of Wildcat banking during the State bank note era of the first half of the nineteenth century. "The 'Suffolk System,' though not recognized in our banking law, has proved to be the great safe-guard to the public. Whatever objections may exist to this 'system' in theory, its practical operation is to keep the circulation of our banks within the bounds of safety. No sound bank can have any well-founded reason for refusing to redeem its bills in Boston, and a bank that is not sound cannot long do business under that system, and ceases to be in good credit when it is 'thrown out at the Suffolk.'" --Report of Bank Commissioners of Maine, December 31, 1857. Essentially, the Suffolk Bank became a redemption center for banks throughout New England, helping to control the excess currency issues of underfunded country banks. David Rice Whitney was President of the Bank when this work was published. In the Preface, he writes: "The following sketch was written with no intention of entering into a vindication of the Suffolk Bank System. The benefits conferred upon the currency of New England by the Suffolk Bank are now universally acknowledged; the ill feelings against it, arising sometimes from personal but oftener from pecuniary considerations, have long since passed away; and the incorporation of its system of redemption into the present National Bank Act shows that its fundamental principle, that a bank currency to be sound must be redeemable on demand, still survives." Cal Wilson did much in the 1980s to promote American numismatic literature, especially through the pages of this lively publication. Runs are now scarce and complete sets are more so, owing to the erratic distribution of several of the later numbers. An additional issue (Volume V, Nos. 5–6) was published electronically in October 2001. Kolbe 825.

A most interesting series of catalogues. The penultimate sale, the notable "Hofmann Library," essentially metamorphosed from mail bid to public auction. Several collectors and dealers who viewed lots on the sale day, some of whom carried commissions, were given the opportunity as evening approached to compete with each other to place winning bids.
